

Holmes visits Dream Home

October 15, 2016

London, Ont. - Canada's favorite contractor, Mike Holmes and his daughter Sherry Holmes, known for popular HGTV shows like Holmes on Homes and Home Free, visited the Dream Lottery today. Mike and Sherry toured the home with Dream Home builders Sue and Doug Wastell prior to spending a few hours meeting and greeting fans who lined up to tour the latest lottery home.

Wastell Homes is a "Holmes Approved Homes" builder who also recently won Builder of the Year at the London Home Builder's Association Awards of Creative Excellence.

Mike Holmes gave the Dream Home a thumbs-up calling it a "tier three" build; Holmes highest approval rating for homes featuring "trusted workmanship, the top products on the market and the best building practices in the industry for a home that is healthy, green, energy-efficient, fire-mould- and moisture-resistant." In addition to the quality workmanship in the walls, Sherry Holmes praised the interior design features of the spectacular Dream Home, noting that there were many aspects she will keep in mind for her future projects.

The Dream Home is open for public viewing noon - 5 p.m., seven days a week. To find directions and a map to the home, and how to buy a ticket to win this fabulous showpiece (or the $1,000,000 optional cash prize) visit www.dreamitwinit.ca.
